ABOUT THE COURSE

Tarot Sādhaka — Practitioner Course in Tarot Reading

Sādhaka is for students who can read the cards and now want depth, accuracy and confidence with real people. You learn how cards change each other in combination, how numbers and astrological links add detail, and how to time what a spread shows.

Half of the course is practice. Four reading clinics are spent entirely on real questions from volunteers, read by you and reviewed by the teacher, so you learn how to listen, frame and deliver a reading — not only how to interpret it.

OUTCOMES

What you will be able to do

- Read card pairs and clusters as combinations, not separate cards
- Use numerology and elemental dignities to refine a reading
- Use the classical astrological links of the cards
- Give timing with suits, numbers and spread positions
- Design your own spreads for a client's real question
- Run a full client session — intake, reading and close
- Handle difficult questions and emotional clients with care
- Keep client records and follow the reader's ethics code

QUESTIONS

Frequently asked

Do I need to have done Tarot Praveśa?
Praveśa or an equivalent foundation. If you learnt elsewhere, we hold a short free placement reading to check you are comfortable with all 78 cards and the Celtic Cross.

Who are the volunteers in the clinics?
Members of the VedicSiddhanta community who agree to receive a free practice reading. Their names are kept private and readings are reviewed only in class.

Will I be able to read professionally?
Sādhaka covers the full client session, ethics and records. Many students start taking paid readings after it; the Ācārya course adds the Jyotiṣa connection and a practical review for our reader panel.

Is astrology needed?
No. We teach the astrological links of the cards from scratch. Students who know Jyotiṣa will find these links easy to use.

What if I miss a class or clinic?
Classes are recorded. A missed clinic can be made up in the next batch's clinic at no cost.
