ABOUT THE COURSE

Vedic Tarot Ācārya — Advanced Course in Tarot and Jyotiṣa

Ācārya is the distinctive VedicSiddhanta course: it reads the Tarot spread and the horoscope side by side. You learn to link cards with the nine grahas, the twelve rāśis and the nakṣatras, to use a spread as a Praśna — a question chart — and to check what the cards say against daśā and transit.

The course closes with professional practice: combined Tarot–Jyotiṣa consultations, remedies offered responsibly, a written case study and a practical review. Successful graduates may apply to join the VedicSiddhanta reader panel.

OUTCOMES

What you will be able to do

- Link each card to grahas, rāśis and nakṣatras with a clear method
- Use a Tarot spread as a Praśna and read it with the moment's chart
- Confirm a spread against the birth chart, daśā and transits
- Time events by combining card timing with gocara
- Use Tarot for muhūrta questions — with its limits
- Suggest simple remedies responsibly — and know when not to
- Run a combined Tarot–Jyotiṣa consultation from start to finish
- Write a professional case study for review

QUESTIONS

Frequently asked

Do I need to know Jyotiṣa?
Basic Jyotiṣa helps. If you have not studied it, the course includes a short bridge module on signs, planets and houses before the main classes.

Are the Tarot–graha links traditional?
Tarot is not a Vedic tradition, so these links are a modern working map, not an ancient teaching. We show where they come from, teach one consistent method and ask students to test it on real cases.

Can Jyotiṣa students join directly?
Yes, if you already read Tarot comfortably. Praveśikā graduates who have never read Tarot should start with Tarot Praveśa.

What is the practical review?
A recorded, observed reading and a case study, reviewed by the faculty. Passing it lets you apply to the VedicSiddhanta reader panel; acceptance depends on availability and further checks.

What if I miss a class?
Every class is recorded and uploaded within 24 hours, and you keep access for life.
